

An innovative wellness platform blending technology, awareness, and healing pathways for African American, Native American, Latinx, and Asian and Pacific Islander American boys (13+) and men, and for those who identify as LGBTQIA+ within these communities. This project is considered a Promising Practice. We aim to reduce disparities, remove stigma, heal trauma, and end prolonged suffering. We deliver Prevention and Early Intervention (PEI) education while increasing mental health awareness toward healing, treatment, and linkages to care.
